

Ben Tankard

Ben Tankard, widely recognized as the “Godfather of Gospel Jazz,” is the recipient of nine stellar Awards and multiple Dove and Grammy nominations. As an artist, composer and producer, Ben has participated on 15 gold and 6 platinum albums and is the best selling gospel/jazz musician all time. He has recorded 16 top instrumental solo albums and collaborated on over 500 recordings in his 20-year career (including work with platinum artists Fred Hammond, Kelly Price, Take-6 and Yolanda Adams). Ben is signed to the world’s biggest gospel label: Sony/ BMG/Verity. Ben’s teaching ministry was jump-started by a prophetic word, and an anointing by Dr. Creflo A. Dollar. Ben and his wife Jewel pastor the Destiny Center, the fastest growing church in Murfreesboro, TN, are internationally recognized through record and book distribution, radio and TV broadcast, and over 150 personal appearances annually. He has written 4 books including bestseller – Faith It Til You Make It. The Tankards reside in Murfreesboro, TN with their children.