The next page will give you four options to help you connect with people on Facebook. You can choose to “Skip” any of these steps.

Step 1: Add Friends

A list of people will be displayed and you can choose to add them immediately as your friends if you know them. They will in turn have to accept your friendship in order for the two of you to become friends. FRIENDSHIP ON FACEBOOK IS A TWO-WAY STREET. It has to be requested and accepted to be added.

Step 2: Find Friends

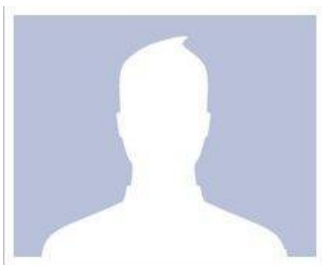

Based on your email contacts, Facebook will automatically search to find any of your friends in your contact list that already have a Facebook account and will then ask if you want to connect with those people via Facebook.

Step 3: Profile Information

Where you went to school, organizations you belong to, etc. is a part of your profile information. This information also helps you to connect to others who belong to the same organizations via search.

Step 4: Profile Picture

Many people shutter at the thought of their photo being on the internet. It's okay if you choose not to add your picture right away. You can skip it and come back when you are more comfortable. The picture helps others. There are at least one hundred Jackie Smith's on Facebook. However there is only one you. Your picture will make sure that the people who want to connect with you know that it is you and no one else.

If you choose not to upload a photo, Facebook will assign a silhouette much like this one to your profile.

YOU ARE NOW OFFICIALLY A FACEBOOKER!

Next Step: Accessing THE BLVD (Mississippi Boulevard Christian Church) Fanpage.
